

Press Release

14th June 2010Toyota's May Sales Continues its year-on-year Growth Trend

Crown Motors Limited (CML) is delighted to announce that Toyota's sales performance continues its growth trend in May 2010 with sales of 397 new passenger cars, an increase of 63% when comparing with the same month a year earlier.

The all-new Japan domestic versions of Toyota Previa and Noah have both achieved outstanding sales performance since their launch, respectively over 200 vehicles have already been sold. It reflects that the newly launched Toyota Japan domestic models are truly appreciated and supported by our valuable consumers.

We are confident that in foreseeable future, our sales performance will be in line with the impressive growth trend shown in the past five months. The overall sales volume is expected to climb and be boosted with the launch of much-awaited new models in coming few months. We are going to introduce more advanced all-new Toyota Japan domestic models and keep the local automotive market surprised!
